FROM YOUR ROLDI PRESIDENT

FROM YOUR ROLDI PRESIDENT

I want to give a BIG thank you to all those who helped prepare and deliver the Easter dinners to our shut-ins. My personal thanks to ROLDI board member, Joe Christian, who got the ball rolling on this wonderful endeavor. We served 50 dinners and for this we need to thank:

Cooks: Mike McMahon, Joe Christian, Cheryl Burt, Mark Nesbihal; Servers: Chris Christian, Terri Gieske, Deb Masek; Drivers: Karen Hommes, Steve and Alecia Kiser, Kathy and Larry Murdoch, Mark and Cathy Nesbihal. Special thanks to Shirley Hernly for her wonderful bread. (I hope I didn't miss anyone.)

Look for some pictures and thank you notes elsewhere in the newsletter. I have also included Terri's Facebook posting which came out on Monday, April 13th.

We are all praying for the day when life will return to "normal" and that all our friends have been doing their best to "slow the spread" using the recommendations of the CDC:

- Stay at least 6 feet apart when congregating in the streets. I have an advantage here at Easy and Leisure and, sorry to say, I see many of you are a bit too close to each other.
- Wash your hands every time you go in or out of your home or when grocery shopping, etc. If you can find hand sanitizer, use it. Leave your shoes at the door.
- Keep in touch with your neighbors by phone and be sure they are doing o.k. This is especially important if they live alone.

Since we are really slowing down now getting ready for summer, I could use some items for the newsletter. If you are involved in any projects; have a favorite recipe; read a good book; or anything that would be of interest to our neighbors, send it to me via my email address (judybuddy52@gmail.com). Pictures are always welcome, too.

Those who are traveling to your northern home, come back to us safe and healthy next season.

Judy Young, President ROLDI

FROM YOUR LDPOA PRESIDENT

This month brings news of a new maintenance person. His name is Dylan King. Please say hello when you see him around the property and welcome him to the community.

We have plans on installing netting around the pickle ball court and should be completed by the fall.

Just a reminder to all residents to adhere to the social distancing and respect everyone around you. We understand this is a very frustrating time with the pool, halls and activities being closed but please remember that we are following the guidelines set by the CDC and Government. Our priority is to keep everyone safe and healthy. We ask and appreciate your understanding and cooperation.

I will be leaving the 1st or 2nd week of May and wish everyone a safe and happy summer. As always, please contact Patty at the office with any questions and concerns.

Bill Van Driessche, President LDPOA

FROM YOUR PARK MANAGER

We would like to remind everyone to do their part with keeping safe and healthy. We ask that you please try and not have visitors into the park if possible or, at the very least, minimize the amount of visitors. Our residents' health and safety is an important concern.

Hurricane preparedness – as residents are leaving for the summer we would like to remind you to prep your home for the hurricane season. Please store any and all items that can be considered projectiles and dangerous. Place awnings down if you have them. Complete a departure form and bring it to the office. Thanks.

Patty Phelan, Park Manager

“OPERATION FEEDING LAZY DAYS SHUT-INS”
EASTER DINNER 2020

The following was posted on our Facebook page and printed here for those who do not have Facebook.

"Operation feeding LDs shut-ins, elderly and those not able to leave their homes, a wonderful Easter Dinner was a HUGE success. I want to thank a great group of volunteers: Joe Christian, Chris Christian, Mike McMahon, Cheryl Burt, Debbie Masek, Karen Hommes, Larry Murdoch, Kathy Murdoch, Cathy McDevitt Nesbihal, Mark Nesbihal, Alesia Kiser and Steve Kiser. It was an honor to work with these great folks.

Everything was homemade from turkey, ham, mashed potatoes, gravy, green beans, cake, plastic Easter eggs filled with chocolates, and some of Shirley Hernley's homemade bread!!! In all, 50 meals were made and delivered throughout our community.

After all the dinners were delivered and the hall and dishes were cleaned up, we came back together to give thanks and share our gratitude for a wonderful Easter memory we won't soon forget. Oh, and maybe a pop, water, or glass of wine!!!

Fyi: All CDC guidelines were followed during this entire process.

Thank you again for all your hard work."
Terri Gieske.

Practicing Social Distancing

I received the following letter from Betty Rossi on Tuesday, April 14th: (Ed. Judy Young)

Vic and I want to thank the people that delivered the Easter dinners. They were very well planned and very good. I did not know about this until Shirley Scarpella told me. I wanted to pay for them, but they said "No way!"

*I have lived in Lazy Days since 1978, never left! Being Easter, it was great and the people that did this, the Good Lord will take good care of them. Thanks again.
Betty and Vic Rossi*
