FROM YOUR ROLDI PRESIDENT

It looks like summer has officially arrived—with the high temperatures to prove it! I hope you're all finding ways to stay cool and comfortable.

For those of us sticking around this season, here's what's happening Every Week:

- Pokeno – Mondays at 6:30 PM South Hall
- Quilting – Tuesdays at 10:00 am South hall
- Hand and Foot and Board games - Tuesday at 1:00 pm South hall
- Karaoke - Friday 6:00 pm North hall (We're keeping this going through the Summer. Attendance has been great – come sing or just enjoy the show. No Ear plugs needed –our neighbors have some real talent!!)

Wishing everyone a fun and relaxing summer. If you have any questions or ideas for new activities, don't hesitate to give me a call at 574-612-2200 Remember to take care in the heat; watch out for your neighbors!!!

Gene Kelly, President ROLDI

FROM YOUR PARK MANAGER

Dear Lazy Days owners,

We are half way through May as I write this and things are still busy!

In addition to the normal day to day operations, we have had a lot going on with compliance matters. On May 1st we had a fining committee meeting and sadly 6 owners were fined, some for the 2nd time, for not getting hurricane damage repaired. Please know, the board doesn't want to fine but it is a tool to use to try and keep the park looking great. It is the fiduciary duty of the BOD to ensure this is done and your board directs the committee and myself in order to try and keep this community and its standards fairly implemented.

After all, choosing to live in a deed restricted community means you have expectations of certain things including that the homes in the community maintain a minimum standard. I know we all sincerely hope that those affected will be able to resolve their compliance matters in the next six months or sadly we may have to do it all again.

For those who have left already I hope you made it to your northern homes safely. We miss you although it is great to be able to go to the post office and get mail sent in 20 minutes and not over an hour!

For those of us left in Paradise, we are hoping for a little more rain although 7" this week was a good start. The grass actually went green and needed a cut! Our new landscape company has been on site 2 times already and the compliments are all good so far.

There has been a new AC installed in North Hall and some plumbing repairs at the office. Randy will be painting in the pool deck area over the next week or two. The yellow speed bumps will get a new coat of paint too. Having some quieter days means we get the "hunny do" jobs done.

I hope you are all enjoying getting your own "hunny do" jobs done before the heat and rain of the summer kick in and will have a wonderful and safe June.

FROM YOUR LDPOA PRESIDENT

The Village has become quite empty; shutters are down everywhere, and we are missing our neighbors already. Please help to watch over our village if you are a year-round resident, report any issues to the office or, if appropriate, the sheriff's department.

The North Hall is now closed for the summer months except for special ROLDI events that will be announced as they get planned. The laundry will be available from 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. daily. The South Hall is open daily and some ROLDI activities will continue through the summer so please participate!

We are expecting a relatively quiet summer season this year. The only project planned this summer will be replacing one of the three air conditioners that keep the North Hall cool. Funds are already budgeted out of the reserves.

Enjoy your summer! Don't hesitate to reach out to me at any time. My contact information is 239-291-8357 and my email is lloydshipley@gmail.com.

Lloyd Shipley, President LDPOA

SUMMER ACTIVITIES

Just a note to let neighbors know of some of the activities that go on all year in the South Hall:

- Monday - Pokeno 6:30 p.m.
Tuesday - Quilting/Crafts 10:00 a.m.
- Cards (Hand & Foot) 1:00 p.m.
Thursday - Bingo 6:30 p.m.

Come and join us for fun and games!

LIBRARY

We have received a large number of brand-new books in the library. Many are non-fiction, self-help books. I tried to arrange them in some kind of order, but they will ultimately be donated to a charity as we are not equipped to handle them.

Once again, I ask that you do not re-shelve books as we have a unique system. Please just place them in the "Return Books Here" box. Thanks.

Judy Young, Librarian

CHANGES TO THE CALENDAR

Please note that there is a time change on the Monthly Calendar. On Thursday evenings there is only one time for Bingo; it is at 6:30 p.m. and is no longer called "early bingo."

TIME TO SAY GOODBYE

Our condolences to the family of Terry Reith of 572 Winning Way, who passed away on May 19th.

SCAM ALERT

Tips for Avoiding Facebook Scams

- 1. Secure your Facebook account with a strong password and two-factor authentication
Avoid including your name, phone number, email address or common words.
Don't reuse your Facebook password on other services online, and never share your password with others.
- 2. Don't accept friend requests from people you don't know
Scammers may create fake accounts in an attempt to friend and manipulate people.
- 3. Watch out for suspicious links and malicious software
Be careful not to click on suspicious links, open suspicious files or install malicious apps or browser extensions—even if they appear to come from a friend or a company you know.

Identity Theft

Warning signs of identity theft

- Bills for items you did not buy
- Debt collection calls for accounts you did not open
- Information on your credit report for accounts you did not open
- Denials of loan applications
- Mail stops coming to, or is missing from, your mailbox

How to report identity theft

To report identity theft, contact:

- The Federal Trade Commission (FTC) online at IdentityTheft.gov or call 1-877-438-4338
- The three major credit reporting agencies. Ask them to place fraud alerts and a credit freeze on your accounts.
- The fraud department at your credit card issuers, bank, and other places where you have accounts

How to protect yourself from identity theft

- Do not answer phone calls, texts, social media messages, or email from numbers or people you do not know.
- Do not share personal information like your bank account number, Social Security number, or date of birth.
- Collect your mail every day and place a hold on your mail when you will be on vacation or away from your home.
- Review credit card and bank account statements. Watch for and report unauthorized or suspicious transactions.
- Understand how ATM skimming works and how to protect yourself
- Learn when it is safe to use a public Wi-Fi network
- Store personal information, including your Social Security card, in a safe place. Do not carry it in your wallet.

Imposter Scam

The top types of imposter scams:

An imposter scammer may call, text, or email to convince you they are someone in authority. They may even use caller ID to make it look like they are calling from an official government or business' number. To commit identity theft, they try to get you to send money or a gift card or share personal information.

- Government imposter scams - Unless you contact them first, government agencies typically initiate communication with you by letter. Unexpected contact or demands through any other method may be a scam.
- IRS imposter scams - scammers pretend you owe the IRS money for taxes and may threaten legal action
- Social Security imposter scams - scammers claim there is a problem with your Social Security account or promise to increase your benefits
- Charity scams - scammers pretend to be from a real or fake charity and try to get you to contribute
- Grandparent scams - scammers pretend to be a grandchild or other relative who needs emergency financial help
- Tech support scams - scammers tell you your computer's security is at risk and try to remotely access your device and steal personal information or ask for payment
- Scammers may also pretend to be from your bank or a company you do business with. You might be told you owe money or there is a problem with your account.
